OREGON.

The trial of Coxan for the murder of Hasbrook will begin at Lafayette this morning.

A number of strange Indians, whom nobody knows, have been prowling about the Dalles, and through Wasco county, for some days.

Several cases of scarlet fever were reported in Benton county last week, but none fatal.

More burglaries reported at Salem. The last raid was on the house of Mr R. H. Price.

Mrs Brotherton and three children, survivors of the Modoc massacre, are in Jacksonville.

A man named C. Merchon, aged 76 years, died suddenly from dropsy at the Dalles last week.

The Marion County Farmers' Club will meet in Salem on next Saturday, May 3d, at 10 A. M.

Twelve tolerably good horses were purchased last week in Benton county, for about $78 apiece.

The Corvallis Library will soon be in receipt of all the standard poetical works, elegantly bound.

The freighting business between Roseburg and Jacksonville this season, is expected to be lively.

In a few days a force of 150 Chinese laborers will be set at work on the Albany and Santiam canal.

The Mercury says the prospects are good for a large fruit yield in all parts of Marion county this year.

The Democrat of last Saturday says: "When we went to press this morning, Hon A. J. Thayer was slowly, but steadily improving."

The grain crop in Wasco county is said to be in excellent condition, but much of the fruit has been injured or entirely killed by the late frosts.

The Gazette learns from some source that another steamer will soon be put on the Yaquina Bay trade if the Oneatta should not leave it, as is expected.

The farmers in Benton county are exceedingly busy putting in crops—and an unusually large breadth will be sown in the State the present season.

A cutting scrape occurred at Springfield, Lane county, last week. James Lawler was cutter, and Joseph Cline was cuttee. James was fined $50 and costs.

Two ladies of Salem, whose names are not given, because of their respectability, had a bit of scratching and hair pulling last week. So says the Statesman.

A colony of about twenty Germans have gone to work on a 4,200 acre tract of good land lying in Santiam Valley, belonging to Captain A. P. Ankeny, of this city.

An unprincipled dealer in hides played sharp on a man at the Dalles last week, by making the scales indicate 100 pounds less than was right, but his little game was discovered.

The house of Mrs. DeHaven, of Salem, was entered by burglars a few nights ago, but in their search knocked down a tin boiler which made so much noise that the thieves fled.

The number of persons going east of the mountains from Lane county this spring is smaller than usual, owing, probably, to the Modoc war and apprehended Indian troubles elsewhere.

The city election in Corvallis will take place next Monday, and the political parties seem disposed to "divide up" on the Temperance question. Candidates are cropping out all over the town.

Two little girls were crossing a stream on a foot log in Polk county, last week, when one of them fell into the water and came near being drowned, but was bravely rescued by her playmate.

A party of horse buyers who traveled over Douglas county, have suddenly taken a trip to parts unknown for the health of the horses, and now the farmers are inquiring for their postoffice address.

About eighty Chinamen have started for the Bohemia mines, Douglas county. A new ten stamp mill will soon be put up at those diggings by a San Francisco engineer. It will be erected on the claim of Jesse Barker.

The Mercury reports several cases of epizooty in Polk county, among the horses on the farm of Mr. Prather. Six animals were taken down in one day, and Mr P. is likely to suffer much loss, not being able to get in his spring crops.

The Journal says the effort to establish the State University at Eugene, is still going on and it is asserted that candidates will be brought out in the county at the next election pledged to the repeal of the tax for support of the institution.

A Roseburg paper of the 26th says: "On Wednesday and Thursday nights our valley was visited by severe white frosts which played sad havoc with the tomato plants in this neighborhood. We have not learned whether the fruit was injured."

The Plaindealer learns that a contract for two thousand barrels of lime for the State Capitol has been let to the two companies at Roseburg—a thousand barrels to each. Marks & Cooper have the contract for supplying lime for the State University at Eugene City.

Charley Sutton, who was arrested and imprisoned on suspicion of being in some way implicated in the Glaze–Whitley attempt at assassination at Dallas, has broken jail and left, and $100 reward is offered for his recapture, by the Sheriff of Polk county.

The financial affairs of Eugene City for the year ending April 10th, 1873, are reported as follows: "Total amount of receipts to April 7th, 1873, $2,451 20. Total expended during the same time, $2,450 19. Cash on hand, $1 88. Orders unpaid, $381 22.

Mr. Baldwin, of Newport, informs the Gazette that the Indians about Yaquina Bay are all quiet and that but few are allowed to leave the Siletz reservation. It is a difficult task to get at the exact truth from the many reports of Indian movements that reach us.

The Mountaineer of last Saturday says: "Mr. Ad. Edgar, who is just in from Canyon City, says that about four hundred of the Snake Indians, who have been fed all winter at Fort Harney, have left that vicinity, and it is supposed have gone down to join Captain Jack.

At a meeting of the citizens of Toledo, Benton county, a military company was organized, composed of all present. The officers chosen were: Captain, D. Carlisle, 1st Lieut., Wm. Mackie, 2d Lieut., J. H. Blain, 1st Orderly, Jos. Thompson, 2d Orderly, John Butler, 3d Orderly, John Willis.

The Eugene Guard says: "Wheat is now carried from Roseburg to Portland, a distance of about two hundred miles, for 21 cents per bushel. The same is charged from this place, a distance of only 125 miles, and from Harrisburg, 12 or 15 miles north of here, the rates are nine cents per bushel."

The State Board of Education having visited Eugene City, viewed the first site selected for the State University and condemned it as being too low and flat, the Directors met on Monday evening last, and reconsidered their former action by accepting a proposition from Hon. J. H. D. Henderson for 25 acres at $160 an acre.

A letter has been received from Mr. Arrington, the engineer who is examining the route from Roseburg to Port Orford, dated at Ott P. O., at the forks of the Coquille river. He reports the route thus far an entirely practicable, the heaviest grade, going up the Camas mountain, being seventy feet and the steepest down grade fifty feet to the mile, with very little rock cutting.

To get up a little excitement and provide himself with an item, a local editor of Salem, walking along the railroad track took a piece of chalk and wrote on one of the ties, "A man named Jackson." He waited till the train came along, and then rushed through the streets with the information that "a man named Jackson had been run over by the cars." That's what we call playing it pretty thin.

The receipts of the State Fair at Salem in 1869 were $16,401 43, in 1870, $10,744 42, in 1871, $11,057 07, in 1872 (last fall), $10,216 55, showing a falling off last year from 1869 of $184 88; from 1870, $527 87, from 1871, $2,840 25. So that the receipts of last year were lower than they had been since 1868, though constantly increasing up to 1872. Bad weather was the cause of the decrease last year.

We copy the following from a late copy of the Leavenworth (Kansas) Daily Call: "Flour manufactured in Salem, Oregon, is on sale in this city. It is of a superior article, and sells for 25 cents a sack more than our own brands. Oregon is one of the finest wheat countries in the world, and last year, we believe, shipped some six millions of bushels to the States and foreign countries. Except Kansas, Oregon is to-day the best State or Territory for a man of moderate means to emigrate to. It is second to no State in the Union for productiveness."

THE TERRITORIES.

A Vancouver man caught 87 fine trout in a stream six miles from that place, one day last week.

Vancouver wants a new court house, new hotel and new jail, to accommodate the people who attend court there.

Corinne, Utah, has more people than can find houses to live in, and it is said fifty tenement houses could be rented there at present.

A tooth carpenter, or a man who had been in that business, at Olympia, took $30 the other day "while the owner thereof slept," and decamped.

The Governor of Washington Territory has been called on by the people of Yakima, for arms and ammunition for their protection from hostile Indians.

The Reporter says that the Catholics, resident at Ogden, are about to erect a handsome house of worship in that city. This will be the third or fourth Christian church at Ogden.

The Columbia river is coming up quite rapidly, notwithstanding the weather has been comparatively cold during the past ten days in Eastern Washington and Idaho Territory. We anticipate high water this summer.

A country wagon, heavily laden with furs, surmounted by elk and deer horns, arrived in Olympia last week. It was drawn by four oxen, and was said to contain furs valued at $2,000, from the vicinity of Gray's Harbor.

A man giving his name as B. White, was arrested at Alsea, last Monday, on a charge of horse stealing, and has since been in jail at Corvallis. He took a horse belonging to a Mr. McBee, on Muddy, and traded it off the same day.

The list of deaths in Washington county during the last week was rather large. Mr John Johnson, residing in the North Plain at Glencoe, Mr. Bones, in Hillsboro Plain, and William McLin, at Cornelius, all old pioneers, have gone to their long rest.

The St. Paul (Minnesota) Daily Press of the 31 instant says that General Rosser reached Moorhead last Saturday and is preparing for an early and vigorous commencement of work on the line of the Northern Pacific west of the Missouri river.

At the last regular meeting of Vancouver Lodge No. 3, I. O. O. F., held on the 21st inst., P. G. James Orr and P. G. S. D. Maxon, were elected as representatives to the R. W. Grand Lodge of Oregon, which convenes at the Dalles, Oregon, on the 19th of May, 1873.

The Corinne Reporter says: "Utah stands at the head of all commonwealths in respect to financial soundness, for it never has been in debt, is not now, and we hope to see the Territory always maintain itself in the same creditable condition. In addition to the fact that Utah is not in debt is the strangest one that, its taxes are lower than those of any other State or Territory of the Union."

The Corvallis Gazette says: "Last Tuesday morning, as Luther King (sentenced to one year in the penitentiary for the abduction of his sister in-law, under sixteen years of age) was leaving our county jail for the penitentiary, he bid farewell to his father in law, Andrew Ladd, who had been indicted for murder and perjury as follows: "Good bye, father, I shall meet you down in Salem in July."

Our Hillsboro correspondent says: "I understand from Mr. James Walker, one of the Commissioners of the Washington County and Astoria Wagon Road, that parties are surveying the road, and that the road has been established from Cornelius to D. O. Quick's mill. We hope our Cornelius brethren will rest easy now, and cease the continued twaddle about Hillsboro trying to kill their roads. No one in Hillsboro has ever had a desire to interfere, except paid attorneys, and I suppose Cornelius could hire them if they wanted any help, as the money is usually what's the matter with lawyers."

King, alias Jones, alias McGovern, the defaulting postmaster of Silver City, Idaho, was arrested at Ogden recently. The officers went through their prisoner and found, among other articles, twenty one $50 postoffice orders, three each on the following places, respectively: Council Bluffs, Keokuk, Burlington, Rock Island, Davenport, Milwaukee and Chicago—a total of $1,050. It seems that Mr McGovern had laid out for himself a nice little programme, and would have extended it, perhaps, to Vienna, had not his plans been interfered with by the untoward circumstances of his capture. He is reported to be about $5,000 in arrears with the Government.

A Washington dispatch of the 10th inst., says that leading owners in prominent national banks regard the attempt to force a reissue of the entire national bank currency as a violation of faith, since there is a large accumulation of the tax to provide for the currency now in the Treasury. Work has been begun on re-engraving, but it has been ascertained that under the section as framed the banks cannot be compelled to replace any of their currency. However, the printing bureau has six hundred thousand dollars appropriated by the clause, and so has secured its purposes. The plan now is to obtain legislation at the next session to compel the banks to make an exchange as the new plates can be prepared. It is also expected that the proviso requiring the banks to pay the expenses of the new notes will be repealed.

EASTERN DATES TO APRIL 25.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Miscellaneous

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Francis A. Blunt, of New York, has been requested by the Department of State to take temporary charge until he leaves for Europe, as one of the honorary Commissioners to the Vienna Exposition, of the office in New York, for the reception and forwarding of articles for the Exposition.

Levi P. Lucky, Private Secretary to the President, Wm. Avery, Chief Clerk of the Internal Revenue office, and Mr. Martin, of the office of the Secretary of the Treasury, left this city to-night for New York to sail for Europe to-morrow in charge of bonds of the syndicate.

In the matter of the controversy between the Winona, St. Paul and St. Peters Company, and the St. Paul and Sioux City railroad, involving the possession of 50,000 acres of land, and growing out of overlapping land grants, the Secretary of the Interior has decided that the first named company is entitled to the lands.

EASTERN STATES.

NEW YORK, April 25.—The Evening Post has a letter from Newfoundland which gives a clause in the charter of the New York, Newfoundland and London Telegraph Company, which has passed almost unnoticed for twenty years. The Government of Newfoundland has the right to purchase the line at a valuation, the first twenty years to terminate in 1875. The company recently applied to the Government to have this clause rescinded and their possession thus continued for thirty years, but the Government, under most eminent legal advice in London, to the effect that they have a right to purchase the line without paying anything for valuation of profits, has refused. This intelligence in London caused the stock of the company to fall from twenty pounds to fourteen, but after the panic had abated somewhat it rose to seventeen pounds.

Convicted of Murder.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., April 25.—In the Supreme Court in this city, to-day, Albert W. Smith was convicted of murder in the first degree, for killing Chas. D. Sackett, at Westfield, on the 20th of November last. He will be sentenced to-morrow. The circumstances leading to the crime were as follows: Smith had an infatuated passion for Miss Jennie Bates, of Westfield, and on meeting her while returning from the theater in company with Sackett, to whom she was betrothed, fired several shots from a pistol, wounding Miss Bates in three places and putting a bullet through Sackett's breast, from the effects of which he died in a short time. The defense was that the murder was committed under a monomaniacal delusion.

Fatal Accident.

PATERSON (N. J.), April 25.—This morning, as a construction train, loaded with rails, on the Delaware, Lackawana and Western Railroad, was passing Little Falls, a number of rails on one of the cars swung round with great violence, killing John Shanaghan and injuring five others.

Go in Henderson.

NEW YORK, April 25.—The Board of Police has granted officer Henderson permission to bring suit for damages against Crawford for shooting him over a year ago.

Rebellion Against a Nuisance.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Shipowners' and shipmasters' associations propose, in view of the arrests last night, to see how far organized bands of sailor boarding house keepers may interfere with the commerce of the port. These keepers and their runners have been exceedingly bold of late. They have prevented sailors from shipping before the Commissioners, as required by law, and even insist that advance money shall be paid within twenty-four hours after men have been put on board, and that, often, without the seaman's signature to the note. They also seek to prevent men shipping, that they may break down the law. For that purpose, they have a committee in the neighborhood of the Commissioner's office, frightening off seamen, and if a sailor does go into the office, he is frequently followed there and openly threatened with violence if he ships in any manner and on any terms other than boarding house keepers dictate; a number of vessels with their cargoes on board being detained for days awaiting crews.

Ever since the passage of the new United States shipping law and the establishment in this city of a Seamen's Exchange, sailors' boarding house keepers have maintained the most potent opposition to its workings. They formed themselves into an association under the name of the "Sailors' Boarding-house Keepers' Association," with the avowed purpose of opposing the enforcement of the law. For a while they were content with conducting their ill gotten business in an underhand way, but latterly they have been emboldened to such an extent that they kept agents stationed in the Exchange to prevent seamen from entering. When persuasion failed they did not hesitate to resort to down right violence, and in several instances beat or abused their poor victims because they objected to being robbed of their advance pay, or to become accessory to a violation of the statute. This course exercised such terrorism on the minds of the seamen that they were afraid to go near the Exchange, and the business then dwindled down to almost nothing. Captain Duncan has for some time had the utmost difficulty in filling orders for crews for vessels which were disposed to obey the law.

Last week the ship North America, bound for Melbourne and freighted with a cargo worth a half million of dollars, was compelled to postpone her voyage three days from this cause, and had, finally, to send to Boston for a crew. Another source of complaint arose from the fact, that the Exchange was in the habit of paying "Seamen's notes," as they are called, for money due the boarding-house keepers three days after the sailing of seamen whose names were appended lately.

Captain Duncan has noticed irregularities in the filling out of these notes, and some have actually been presented with the doctor's signature omitted. The boarding house keepers have gone farther, and have recently demanded that these notes shall be paid. Captain Duncan, at length, grew tired of this. He recently presented 127 names of members of the Sailor's Boarding-house Keepers' Association to District Attorney Phelps, with a request that he would take action on the evil. Yesterday morning the Grand Jury found indictments against the whole crowd for conspiracy, and combining to resist the United States law. Bench warrants were immediately issued for their arrest. Up to 9 o'clock, 53 had been captured, and the police were on the track of others, although it is known that some have wind of the action of the authorities, and have made themselves scarce.

Presents for Lo.

The purchasing committee of the Board of Indian Commissioners have contracted for 1,553 dozen butcher knives and 120 dozen skinning knives, among other articles to be furnished to Indians.

New York Railroad Matters

Wall street gossip intimates that the Erie and the Atlantic and Great Western railroads cannot be consolidated. Close working running arrangements on a pro rata basis will be established between them. It is also said that Gould, Bischoffsheim and Goldsmidt have opened the regular Erie campaign, Gould having gone short of Erie on sales to the latter, who longs for the campaign to be still further enlivened (according to the same authority) by war to be waged by Bischoffsheim & Co., London bankers, on President Watson.

The Irrepressible Conflict Postponed.

Twenty-seven delegates from various trades unions in the United States met in secret session last evening and after discussion resolved to postpone any attempt to enforce the 8 hour rule till 1874.

Official Opinions on the Indian Question

CHICAGO, April 26.—A Washington special says the Indian bureau does not share in the apprehension indulged by the officers of the army relating to the probability of a general Indian outbreak. It is stated that some of the warlike tribes may cause trouble during the summer, but no more than has been usually experienced in this quarter. In this connection it is denied that Cachise is off his reservation committing depredations. When last heard from, a short time ago, he was still on the reservation where he was placed by Gen. Howard, and had expressed his intention of remaining there.

An Expose Promised.

NEW YORK, April 26.—The Government will publish, next week, the official statement of the Phelps, Dodge & Co. case, in which the firm will be shown to have sworn falsely and to have been guilty of a willful attempt to defraud the revenue. A number of damaging letters, which passed between the firm and the officials, but which were suppressed by the former in their recently published explanation, are to be incorporated. The statement is drawn up and ready to go into the hands of the printers. As soon as it is put in type, it will be given to the newspapers for publication. The officials claim that they have been driven to this course in self defense, by the assertion of Phelps, Dodge & Co., that the Government insisted on taking from them $271,000, while conceding their innocence.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Serious State of Affairs in France.

LONDON, April 25.—The gravest apprehensions are felt in the highest circles in Paris of the danger of an immediate civil war. Monarchists are determined to oust Thiers at any cost.

Owing to the troubled condition of Spain a great number of families are leaving the country. Steamers arriving here and in French ports are crowded with refugees.

Spanish Republicans Rampant.

MADRID, April 25.—A formidable demonstration will soon be made by Federal Republicans in this city.

Brigadier General Padios has recaptured a large amount of property taken by the Carlist chief Saballs.

More of Bismarck's Pet Schemes.

BERLIN, April 25.—The Upper House of Prussian Diet to-day passed a bill for the control of the clergy.

The Cholera at Vienna

VIENNA, April 25.—Twenty cases of cholera were brought to the hospital yesterday, five of which have proven fatal. An effort is being made to conceal the fact of the appearance of the disease in this city.

NEVADA.

PIOCHE, April 25.—In the Raymond & Ely suit to-day Jas. H. Hardy argued for the plaintiff, occupying six hours and a half. Judge Lake occupies to-morrow for the defendants.

PIOCHE, April 26.—In the Raymond & Ely case to-day Judge Lake deprecated the assault which had been made upon Mr. Henry Rives, partner of Perley. Thornton said he had not attacked Rives. He stated the facts of the transactions in which Rives was connected in the purchase of a part of the Monitor title, assuming that Perley was responsible for the acts recounted. Perley said he was responsible for his acts inside and outside the court house. Thornton said, "I am ready for you Mr Perley, any time you see fit to call upon me." Perley—"You will hear from me, sir, without fail." Thornton—"I am ready at any time you see fit to call upon me." Then, after a pause, Thornton added: "Don't forget it, Mr. Perley, and back out of it." Perley—"You will hear from me, don't you be mistaken on that score."

ARIZONA

LOS ANGELES, April 26.—The Arizona Miner (Prescott) of the 19th instant contains a letter from Hardyville which says that J. R. Ridgeway was killed at Cerbat by Fred. Hunsacker. The deceased had been seeking to kill Hunsacker who procured a shotgun and shot Ridgeway through the head. Hunsacker was not arrested. He is well known in Fresno county. He broke jail there while under indictment for murder, was captured in Arizona, brought back last fall and acquitted.

The officers and soldiers of Crook's army have all returned to their respective posts. Two thousand Apaches came in from the mountains to Verde reservation.

A Mexican was killed by a party of a dozen Apaches on the 14th, near Camp McDowell. A military force started in pursuit of the murderers.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—Nothing new from the Modocs.

The jury in the case of Wm Bryan, the boy tried for the murder of a Chinaman, after being out 48 hours could not agree on a verdict and were discharged this afternoon.

On the voyage of the schooner Ettila, from Coos Bay, and during a heavy gale, a seaman, Jas. E. Oliver, was washed overboard and drowned. He was a native of Maine.

Judge Morrison this evening, in the breach of promise case of Frazer vs Thrift, requested counsel to furnish him authorities on the subject of aggravation of damages in cases of rape under promise of marriage. The trial will be resumed to-morrow.

Hugh McFinnegan was brought in the Twelfth District Court to-day for trial for the murder of Jas Hogan. Ten jurors were obtained.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—The streets to-night were thronged with pedestrians obliged to walk for want of car accommodations. The first ox team made its appearance on the streets this afternoon, hauling a loaded dray. No fatal case of epizootic had been reported up to to-night, but there are very few horses in the city which are not affected with it. There was not a hack on the Plaza to-night.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.—The counsel for plaintiff in the case of Frazer vs. Thrift, commenced the argument this morning. The court room is packed. The case will probably be closed to-day.

A dwelling house occupied by police officer J. O. Ayres and family, was destroyed by fire last night. There was another fire to-day, near the corner of Hayes and Franklin streets. In each instance, the Department was able to turn out in full force.

All the cars on Mission Street Railroad will be replaced on the line to-morrow. It is estimated that over 6,000 men are thrown out of employment here by reason of the epidemic among horses.

Hosts of people have gone to Alameda, to attend the thirty fourth anniversary picnic of the Odd Fellows.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.—A English sailor on the Garibaldi was beaten by the mate this afternoon and knocked overboard. He was rescued, and both mates of the vessel are under arrest.

The trial of Hugh McMenemy, for the murder of James Hogan, was not concluded to-day. It will be resumed Monday.

N. B. Terwilliger, a butcher, unable to obtain horses, to-day hired ten Chinamen, harnessed them to his wagon, and the team did a good day's work.

There were 76 deaths in the city during the week.

In the case of R. D. Bogart, before the court-martial at Mare Island to-day, Mr Bagley, of Canada, testified that he saw Bogart in Canada and knew that a reward was offered for his arrest for desertion. Bogart was arrested by him, but he paid witness $500 to let him go, saying he had already paid nine men $500 each for the same purpose. He was in Canada under the name of Helman.

The counsel in the breach of promise case of Frazer vs. Thrift, have just concluded their argument and the Judge is charging the jury. He rules out all the testimony of Miss Frazer in regard to the alleged rape by defendant at the Brevoort House, holding that, if her story is true, she ought to institute a criminal prosecution against Thrift. It is thought the jury will fail to find a verdict.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.—No courier arrived at Yreka to-day and it is probable none will come from the lava bed before Tuesday.

Senator Mitchell arrived to-night.

The jury in the case of Miss Frazer vs Thrift has just returned a verdict for $12,000 damages for plaintiff. The verdict was received with great applause by the audience in the court room.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

SANTA BARBARA, April 25.—The Chamber of Commerce held a meeting last night, and decided to buy the finest block in Santa Barbara and donate it to any parties who will immediately build a large hotel such as is now so imperatively demanded.

LOS ANGELES, April 25.—The formal transfer of the Los Angeles & San Pedro Railroad to the Southern Pacific Railroad Company was made to-day.

The borate fields on the road to Owens river have all been taken up. A Deputy U. S. Surveyor is completing surveys at three points on the lake, where clear deposits are found. At other places deposits are spotted. At Lent's claim borate is being sacked for shipment to San Francisco.

YREKA, April 25.—The regular courier from General Gillem's headquarters arrived at 4 o'clock this evening, bringing news up to 2 A. M. yesterday. Owing to the horses being down with the epizootic his trip was slower than usual.

The Yreka Union of to-morrow will contain a four-column statement of the Ben. Wright treachery of 1852, endorsed by ex-Sheriff J. C. Burgess and J. G. Halleck of this place, who were both members of the Company, and present at the so-called massacre.

W. B. Johnson and Capt. W. C. Silva started for the front to-day for the purpose of raising and bringing hither the remains of Lieut. Sherwood. From here they will be taken east.

LOS ANGELES, April 26.—The Southern Pacific Railroad Company will soon commence the work of dredging the bar at San Pedro with two powerful steam dredgers. The wharf at Wilmington is to be extended five hundred feet. When completed, goods can be landed without the expense of lighterage.

SAN JOSE, April 26.—The trial of Geo. H. Hixon, Vice Principal of the Reed street school, charged with assault and battery upon Ernest Rose, a pupil whom he severely flogged, resulted in favor of Hixon, who was cleared, it being proven that the punishment was necessary to subdue the boy.

PETALUMA, April 26.—At 8 o'clock last night a fire broke out in the carpenter shop of C. Blackburne. The building was burned. The flames communicated to an adjoining building, which was also nearly destroyed. Loss about $500, uninsured.

Albany Odd Fellows' Celebration.

ALBANY, April 26.—The Fifty-fourth anniversary of the introduction of Odd Fellowship in the United States was celebrated by the brethren of the order in this city, by a grand excursion and picnic to Corvallis to-day accompanied by the Albany Brass Band.

J. W. Anderson, a workman in the Albany Foundry, was seriously hurt to-day while engaged in sawing up some lumber with a circular saw. There being some splinters in the way, Mr. Cherry, the proprietor took a spoke to knock the splinters off, when it was caught by the saw and thrown violently in the face of Anderson knocking him down, and cutting a long gash in his cheek.

An alarm of fire was caused to-day by the roof of Dr. Hill's dwelling house catching fire. The alarm was given by an Indian and the fire promptly extinguished without the help of the fire department.

Indian Troubles East of the Mountains.

We are indebted to the courtesy of the officers of the Steam Navigation Company for the following, received by telegraph from Walla Walla on Saturday last:

[From the Walla Walla Statesman, April 26.]

A week or two since, we noticed the presence of an unusually large number of Indians in this valley, and suggested that the agents in charge of the reservations should look after their pets. This suggestion has been unheeded, and large numbers of these untutored wards of the Government continue to roam around, greatly to the disgust of honest settlers.

Within a day or two, we learn, that these Indians are trading their ponies whenever an opportunity offers, and that the funds thus realized are invested in revolvers and other warlike weapons. There is every reason to believe that the Indians east of the mountains expect and are preparing for an outbreak, and, under these circumstances, the parties who furnish them arms, deserve the severest condemnation.

Within the last week, an old settler coming in from Umatilla county, was chased for one or two miles by a couple of Indians, who clearly indicated their intention to murder him, and were only checked by the timely appearance of a couple of teamsters, when the Indians fled as fast as their horses could carry them. In view of this and other demonstrations, it would be well for the settlers in the most exposed portions to provide themselves with arms, and then, in case of an Indian outbreak, they will be prepared to make a defense. Should the military operations now going on against the Modocs result in the capture and extermination of the whole tribe, the other Indians will settle down, but should the reverse of this prove the case, then the chances are in favor of a general Indian outbreak.

We make this suggestion for the benefit of those who are charged with the management of Indian affairs, and to the end that they may be prepared for any emergency.

MONDAY MORNING, APRIL [illegible]

Some Figures on the School Tax

It is supposed there will be about $16 000 available to this School District this year, independent of the receipt from taxation It is also estimated that the property of the District under the present rules of assessment will foot up about $9 000 000 The tax levied for school purposes by virtue of the school law and which is not subject to the will of the district, is 3 mills on the dollar This tax upon $9 000 000 will produce $27 000 Add $27 000 to $16 000 and we have $43 000 as the estimated income without the levy of any district tax

But some of these estimates may be incorrect They may be too large Let us therefore make allowances Say the receipts from all sources exclusive of taxation will be $10 000 instead of $16 000, and that instead of $9 000,000, the assessment roll shall show only $8 000 000 The receipts of the year then, without levying any district tax will be $10,000 plus $24 000 which is equal to $34 000 Now it is estimated that $25 000 will be required to pay teachers—a large estimate but possibly not too large Thus it appears that, after making all reasonable allowances for over estimates of receipts, the district will, in all probability have funds sufficient to pay its teachers, and a margin of $9,000 for incidental expenses This is almost an ample allowance for the probable demands of the year, but it might prove insufficient It is not economy to attempt to carry on the schools for less money than it will cost to make them efficient It may be, therefore and probably is, the safe plan to levy a small tax to meet possible contingencies Suppose, then, we have a District tax of 2 mills The result will be $16 000 in addition to the $34 000, which will make the aggregate receipts $50 000 This sum is vastly larger than it has ever cost to carry the schools through a year That it will cost more now than it cost five years ago, there can be no question That it ought to cost more in 1873 than in 1872, aside from the expenses of building, we do not believe But this levy of 2 mills will allow a margin of some thousands of dollars over last year's expenses, including the cost of building We cannot but conclude, therefore, that a tax of 1 mill would be sufficient, and that 2 mills at the outside, will be abundant

The "solid men of Boston" are engaged, just now, in an exhaustive discussion of the merits of base ball The boys want the use of the Common for a practice ground, and petition the Council accordingly, while sundry citizens, whose aching shins are exhibited in evidence, protest against the game as most dangerous both to players and to passers by One gentleman said that he had consulted with several eminent physicians and physiologists, all of whom agreed that such exercise was of no benefit Another Councilman, pointing with considerable pride to his own aldermanic corpulence, averred that in his youth he was in delicate health and by this exercise he had gained a robust constitution The game was pretty severely handled The representatives of the various ball clubs admitted, in the discussion, that the game was attended with considerable danger, but they thought the benefits resulting from play, were a fair offset to the dreaded "daisy cutters" It is quite probable that the anti-ballists will compel the boys to yield their claim on the Common.

In his address to the Cuban people, Pieltain, the new Captain General of Cuba, said that his mission is a difficult one, namely, to restore peace, so that they can "fully enjoy liberty as part of the original nation which is entirely free because it has become a Republic" To the volunteers of the Spanish army, he said "I appreciate your patriotism and loyalty and so advise and count on your active co operation I will always act as a loyal Spaniard and give you my confidence, consequently you must trust me United, our difficulties will decrease, and we will soon restore peace If the insurgents repent we will receive them with open arms as friends If they prefer to be enemies we will combat with them unceasingly "

The Leavenworth (Kansas) Times, of the 6th inst, says that all trustworthy accounts from the frontier, represent the Arapahoes and Cheyennes as making preparations for a campaign of determined fighting. The younger braves of the Cheyennes are restless and impatient to be led forth on the war-path Several old chiefs who have visited Washington, and who noted on the route the extent of the white population, have advised peace, and are trying to restrain their sons, but the impulsive young warriors will not listen to the song of the Quaker syren

Not the least of many lamentable results of the recent insurrections in Eastern Spain, is the destruction of the property of institutions of learning In almost every country, and at all times, colleges and churches have been exempt from the pillagings of mobs But we read that in the rage of a rebellious populace in Spain recently, library and cabinets of Physic and Chemistry belonging to the Seminary of Gerona were ransacked and destroyed

A Washington dispatch says that Secretary Delano remarked, the other day, that "should the Modocs escape from the Lava Bed, he did not believe they would form coalitions with other bands for hostile purposes, as there are no unfriendly Indians in that neighborhood" Wonder if Mr D would jump at a chance to risk his scanty tresses on the truth of that proposition !

On Easter Sunday some Mohammedan fanatics conspired to massacre the Christians of Bosnia, in the Danubian principalities The plot was discovered by the authorities and a large body of troops was brought into requisition. This timely interposition of the government defeated the conspiracy and prevented a most horrible outrage.

The San Francisco Chronicle says "Mrs Kimball, the free lovist challenged H C Bennett to a discussion of the subject of free love, either in public or in private Mr Bennett accepted for a public wrangle We think he made a mistake It is quite likely that the Chronicle is correct

The State Department at Washington has received notice from Vienna that the American department has been allotted six thousand square feet additional at the Exposition, and that articles from the United States, intended for exhibition will be received up to June 10th

The Official Gazette of Guatemala announces that the Government is prepared to receive bids from any responsible party native or foreign, for the construction of two lines of railroad through the Republic.

The Eastern Press on the Modoc Massacre

Our Eastern exchanges of the 11th and 15th inst are pretty generally filled with comments on the treacherous murder of General Canby and Dr Thomas In all of them the speedy and summary punishment of the Modoc butchers is demanded In some the Peace Policy is severely criticised, while in others, it is still sustained We give the salient points in the editorials of the leading journals of New York city The Herald says

The Modoc business however one would think ought to suffice to convince the President that in his general treatment of the Indians a little less of the [illegible] policy [illegible] and a little more of the exemplary [illegible] policy of General Sheridan towards refractory tribes [illegible] struggling [illegible] is the only hope of peace and safety to whites and Indians

Still on the general and general question what shall we do with our Indians? we have much yet to learn The reservation policy the great idea of General Grant we fear in the end will be a failure [illegible] communities to themselves the Indian as he has been and is will still be an Indian and comparatively useless to himself and his white neighbors

Those who advocate the peace policy have ever made the mistake of thinking that the straight haired Indian as a "child of nature" preserves all the guileless beauty of mind which characterizes children as we know them The savages who so cunningly planned the massacre of Friday last and so ruthlessly perpetrated it are as pretty specimens of infancy as a four year old tiger Like him they cannot be tamed The bars of a cage may keep him from mischief, if you are content to feed him, but to let him out in the farm yard after whetting his teeth and giving him a [illegible] him is an experiment that can only end in death to the cattle With the Indian it will end in such brutal scenes as that in which General Canby and Dr Thomas met their deaths With the bad Indian we say, if you want a specimen keep him in a cage if you have no cage to hold him, kill him

The Tribune has little to say about the merits of the Peace Policy as advocated by the Philadelphia Commission, but it takes a decided stand against the course of the administration in this particular case It says

The Modoc war, which began in petty mutual wrongs and has dragged its course along in folly and vacillation ever since, is saved from being ridiculous by the horror of its latest scenes The massacre of Good Friday in the Lava Beds will preserve to all time the memory of this discreditable and ignoble quarrel

The frightful catastrophe is the natural and legitimate result of the conduct of the Government during the whole progress of this petty war There has been a show of force too small to accomplish anything, alternating with assurances of friendship which the Indians despised, and a promise of concessions which could not be made The chiefs have seen themselves treated like foreign princes, yet could not be insured against hanging if they surrendered

There will be an immediate outcry for reparation for the blood of Gen Canby He was a man universally esteemed and respected, a good soldier, a good citizen, a good man valuable and hard to be spared in every relation of life From the Golden Gate, where he won his first spurs, to that bleak mountain side where he died in his duty, there was no one hour of his life which was not useful and honorable The army will burn to avenge him, and there is among us enough of the Norse and the Hebrew tradition of the debt of shed blood, to induce a majority, perhaps, of peaceable citizens, at the thought of those honored and reverend heads torn and mangled by worse than brutish hands, to clamor for the extermination of the noxious race who did this murder But it does not behoove the Government to act in obedience to clamor Every step which has been taken by orders from Washington, since the first outbreak of this wretched quarrel, has been ill taken The authorities—in this as in all other Indian policy—have obeyed in turn the dictates of two opposing influences, one, that of the philanthropists, who want the Indian Christianized, the other, that of the frontiersmen, who want them killed. To the one the savage is a noble but misguided creature who needs only kindness to make him perfect, to the other he is a deadly vermin that requires only extermination To the Government he is each, according to the humor of the hour. What we object to, and what the country would do well to protest against, is precisely this humor of the hour Let the Government, for once, make up their minds, and act in one direction or the other

The Times says

The whole experience of the Government with the Indians, which has just been so bitterly emphasized in the case of the Modocs, proves that temporizing with savages in arms does no good The only effective remedy is to make them understand, by the most decisive measures, that the Government is a power with which they cannot trifle To dally with them is to make the whole frontier insecure, and to invite a repetition of such atrocities as that of Capt Jack

By the murder of Gen Canby a severe blow has been dealt to the peace policy which President Grant has pursued in dealing with the Indians, and generally with such success Public sentiment will instinctively demand the corrective influence of the musket, in the face of such ferocity, and from all along the frontier we may expect the cry that the peace policy is a failure

The introduction to this Modoc trouble was a rash and disastrous attack on the Indian stronghold, in which a number of lives were lost—most of them by shots from ambush Had General Canby lost his life in that way, no one of the voices that are now being raised for the abandonment of the peace policy would have regarded his death as an argument for the abandonment of force

The idea at the bottom of the President's Indian policy is peace if we can, war if we must. It is a sound idea

The Boston Advertiser is "compelled to believe that Captain Jack himself has not been the greatest sinner in the Modoc war" It quotes Superintendent Odeneal as saying that "nine tenths of the trouble with the Indians is brought about by meddlesome white men giving them improper advice and dealing illicitly with them " It thinks we should "go back of the 'misguided Indians' to a prominent lawyer of Yreka and a California State Judge While it believes that "Indian wars are generally the result of bad advice by white men, or the natural consequence of misconduct and depredations upon them or their territory by white frontiersmen," it admits that "this cruel massacre is an act of war that calls for retaliation "

The St Paul (Minn) Press, looking back upon the experience of Minnesota says

The hanging of thirty eight Sioux Indians at Mankato in 1863 who were conspicuous in the general and indiscriminate massacre of the white settlers in northern Minnesota the year before, caused great distress of mind to the sentimental philanthropists of the country, who held up their hands in holy horror at the tragic spectacle But this vigorous punishment of some of the ring leaders in that terrible butchery, has made the whole frontier of Minnesota since that time as safe from Indian molestation as the White House and if the whole three hundred condemned to death by Gen Sibley's court martial had paid the same penalty for their crimes probably no hostile Indians would have appeared in arms against the United States as far as the story spread, or as long as the memory of this awful punishment remained in the traditions of their tribes It is full time an end were put to this demoralizing and ignominious Quaker policy, as it is called Let friendly Indians be dealt with kindly honestly and justly But it is a crime against the majesty of the Republic, against law and against civilization to purchase an infamous peace with hostile savages Let every depredation upon Indians be rigidly punished but let every Indian robber or murderer be made to understand that punishment follows swiftly or at any rate surely upon crime that deserts or forests cannot hide the criminal nor mountains afford him any refuge, from outraged justice

The New York Herald at the close of an eloquent eulogy upon the lamented Canby, says "Meantime General Jeff C Davis, who has had some experience among the red skins of our extreme Northern Pacific coast takes the place of General Canby and this appointment will be approved by the country when it is known that the Indian policy of General Davis is the positive and decisive Indian policy of General Sheridan.

The New York Herald of the 15th inst, contains an account of a Herald reporter's interview with our fellow townsman, Col W W Chapman, on the Modoc question.

Letter From Astoria

ASTORIA April 26 1873

Matters and things in and about the oldest settlement in the State of Oregon show unmistakable signs of progress It will be remembered by those whose memories reach so far back that this town was founded in 1811 by the late John Jacob Astor whose pioneer ship the Tonquin commanded by one Capt Thorn turned two summersaults and a hand spring to get into the mouth of the river spilling out several of her crew and leaving them to the mercy of the merciless billows The channel was not known then and the attempt to climb in over the reef of rocks over Point Adams and over Sandy Island proved rather a hazardous experiment I have never had a moment's doubt that the vessel would have been wrecked and every soul on board lost had it not been predestined that the remains to be murdered by Indians and the Tonquin blown to kingdom come by the premature ignition of a villainous compound of charcoal, brimstone and saltpetre To this predetermination of the fate of the Captain and his ship quite a number of individuals who entered the river in the doomed craft but did not proceed with her on her further voyage owe their preservation from shipwreck And as for Thorn, if but a moiety of what was reported of him by the passengers who sailed with him from New York, is true his being overtaken by a current of superheated brimstone was only a question of time at best and a few years more or less is of small consequence to a period beginning at, say the year of grace 1811 and extending to the last year of — eternity !

But I did not intend this historico theological essay I only wished to call attention to the fact that Astoria was not founded till 1811, at the very earliest, and that it is already quite a considerable place Badinage aside, this village is in fact as thrifty as any of its size in the country and does not claim to reach back to the days of Astor, except for the purpose of preserving the memory of that unfortunate adventure of the great trader It is the historic spot in Oregon, but it is only the town site, not the town that is so old and I believe from the best information I can obtain in regard to other towns this place feels the effects of the hard times rather less than most others

Through the courtesy of Col Baldwin Government Superintendent of building I was to-day shown through the new Custom House and Post Office building which has just been finished It is situated on a block in the heart of the town, two streets back from the water The block was sold by Judge Olney to the United States for $8 000, and was so low and marshy as to have required the moderate sum of nine thousand cubic yards of earth to fill it to the grade of the adjacent streets The building, which is of rough sandstone after the rustic style, with small windows and deep set casements, does not present the most pleasing appearance from the outside It suggests the chill and damp of the old castle prisons, that lend such frightful interest to those works of fiction which are adapted, peculiarly, to the period of life immediately succeeding the Measles period But inside, the building is the most handsomely arranged and elegantly furnished of any building for similar purposes on the coast On the ground floor, which is raised about five feet above the present surface of the lot, is the postoffice It is a large and commodious office, with suitable desks and having 104 lock drawers and 570 ordinary delivery boxes The furniture is made of ash wood, with black walnut moulding for a finish, and is far superior to any other postoffice furniture in Oregon or California There is also a very handsome private office for the postmaster

On the floor above is the office of the Collector of Customs, consisting of a large room, fitted up with desks and drawers and pigeon holes innumerable—enough for at least five times the amount of business now done at this port—all of the same material as the furniture below, besides chairs of the most elegant pattern and of the best material. There is likewise a private office for the Collector, similarly furnished

There are also in the building offices for the Lighthouse Inspector and for the Collector of Internal Revenue

All the rooms have beautiful white marble mantels, which, as well as the furniture, were manufactured in Oregon The ash lumber of the furniture came from our own forests

From a narrow hall in the second story a stairway leads up to the top of the building, whence may be obtained one of the finest views afforded by any place about Astoria The broad river, five miles in width, lies before you, with the forest covered mountains of Washington Territory forming a wild and rugged background, and to the west you look through the open gate, under the guns of Cape Hancock, over the line of foam covered breakers that spans the mouth of the Achilles of rivers and out where the broad Pacific stretches away toward the land of spice—and rice

The entire cost of this building and furniture is $71 000, which is $2,000 less than the appropriation The rapidity with which it has been pushed to completion, as well as the excellent quality of the work and the economy exercised in its construction, entitle Col Baldwin to great credit

Mr Hare, the Collector is in his new quarters, but the postoffice remains yet at its old place

I don't know that Astoria is about to have a railway. Some say work will be commenced soon, while others think differently At all events there is a large amount of rail road iron here—about 2,000 tons—and Capt Hustler, who has it in charge, says he knows nothing of the purpose for which it was brought here He only knows he was directed to receive it, and has done so

There is some talk of improvement here in the way of buildings this summer Among the proposed new structures is the Catholic Church and school, upon which work has already commenced

All the soldiers have been sent away from Fort Stephens except a sergeant, a corporal and four men These with the surgeon and one civilian employe make up the entire force at present The number at Cape Hancock I am informed is a little larger

Mr S C L Potter, of the U S Engineer's office at Portland, is here looking after the interests of Uncle Sam in relation to the proposed new lighthouse on Point Adams

Last night Mrs Duniway delivered before a house full of ladies and gentlemen her lecture on Col Baker The lecture was well delivered and highly appreciated Mrs D has been holding a "protracted meeting" here during the week, and has addressed the Astorians upon divers interesting topics Her audiences have been large, for so small a town, and her addresses are mentioned with approbation very generally I am told that she is succeeding very satisfactorily in canvassing for her paper, the New Northwest which is announced to make its appearance again about the first of June

Among Portlanders down here I met yesterday Capt Geo Pease Wm Wadhams, U L Hicks D C Ireland and Wm E Molthrop Astorians express the opinion that the running season is commencing early this year

The Khivan difficulty is in a fair way to be settled From St Petersburg we learn that the reigning Khan has executed his chief counselor, and imprisoned his uncle and other influential Khivans who were enemies of Russia He has also released the Russians long held as prisoners in Khiva, and has sent them to meet the Russian army which is advancing from Orenburg This will probably put an end to the threatened invasion of the Khan's dominions by Russia

The New York Express says that Congressman James Brooks has returned from his two weeks visit to Norfolk unimproved in health His physicians have concluded to administer nourishment by injection every six hours It is believed that Mr Brooks will very shortly succumb to disease

Morals in the Sandwich Islands are said to be as loose as ever since the death of the last Kamehameha

CITY.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE A A WILLIAMS —The funeral obsequies of the late A A Williams held yesterday were of an imposing character and participated in by a number of our citizens the city and other The remains were taken on last Friday evening from the room where the sanguinary deed was committed to the Engine House of No 2 and laid in state until Saturday During the day the body was visited by hundreds of persons who were taking a farewell glance at the features of the dead friend and fireman The was appropriately draped in mourning and also the front of the building A temporary stairway was constructed, leading from the street to the second story of the building where the body was exposed to view in order to facilitate ingress and egress to the room The deceased was placed near the center of the room in an elegant rosewood coffin handsomely mounted with silver On the large silver plate attached to the coffin lid were engraved the words "A A Williams Died April 25 1873 Aged 33 years [illegible]" At the top portion of the plate a number of symbols of the Order of Druids were engraved and at the lower side below the lettering were cut a trumpet nozzle and fireman's hat

The funeral took place yesterday morning from the engine house at 11 o'clock The funeral cortege was one of the largest which we have yet seen in the city A few minutes after 11 o'clock the procession formed in front of the engine house in the following order East Portland Brass Band Multnomah Co , No 2, in full force Vigilance Hook and Ladder Co No 1 Tiger Engine Co , No 5 Protection Engine Co , No 4 Columbia Engine Co , No 3 Willamette Engine Co No 1 Order of Jolly Good Fellows Morvin Lodge United Ancient Order of Druids the hearse containing the remains, accompanied by eighteen pall bearers—nine members of the Druid Order, and nine firemen This was followed by a long line of carriages containing citizens and friends of the deceased The procession marched up Pine street to Fourth, up Fourth to Stark down Stark to the ferry and from thence to the Lone Fir Cemetery where the body was consigned to its final resting place in the City of the Dead

WHISKY THIEF —A man named Poindexter was arrested on Saturday for stealing whisky One of the principal wholesale liquor dealers of the city had for some time past missed almost every day a bottle of whisky from the stock of samples which stood near the front door Although carefully watched, the thief could not be detected Saturday a man was stationed to play the spy Late in the evening, just before the store was closed, Poindexter came along down street, and perceiving, as he thought, no one was looking at him, he reached for his "bunch of fives," and gently transferred a bottle of liquor from the shelf to his coat pocket, and continued his promenade without halting. His movements were not so cleverly performed as to escape detection A policeman was notified and sent to interview Mr Poindexter That gentleman when called upon to rise and explain matters failed to make the circumstances of how he came in possession of the bottle entirely clear, and was furnished quarters at the city's expense The little matter will be adjusted in the Police Court this morning

ON THE WAY —The steamer Ajax, which sailed from San Francisco on Saturday for this port, had on board the following passengers Geo W Weidler, H Bloomfield, J J Reilly, Mrs Fairchild and 2 daughters, L R Meyers, G W Clifford, N A Tillinghurst, Miss B L Steves, L Stratton and child, J Kemp, L A Powell, J W Patterson, H G Matthewson, Miss F Wellman, F Turner, C Snook, W H Yerkes, Mrs H M Yerkes and daughter, J C Ball and wife, Gov Salomon, Gen Hawkins, U S A, and wife, L Samuel G W Fagender, A L VanNest and wife, J Heincken, S Marks, Dr J L Bingham, J R Sheridan, J P Sheridan, Lt S S Willet, J Peters and family, Mrs L S Spear and servant, C H Mong, W L Boothby, J R Gill, J H Fairchild, H S Midway, Dr R J Phillips, U S A, W I Friedlander, J Crawford, W K Dillingham, J Farneman, C M Kew.

THE CHURCHES.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. J A Wirth, of Oregon City, officiated at this church yesterday, both morning and evening the Pastor, Rev A R Medbury having exchanged pulpits for the day

The subject of the morning discourse was Honesty a Prerequisite to Spiritual Knowledge" founded on the following passage of Scriptures

"The light of the body is the eye if therefore thine eye be single thy whole body shall be full of light But if thine eye be evil thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!"—Matt vi 22, 23

A clear eye will have a clear vision to a diseased eye beauty becomes deformity, and light, darkness So the power of the soul to discern truth depends upon the singleness—freedom from bias—of the faculties of moral perception, the judgment conscience and affections If these faculties are biased to evil, then, though given to illuminate they become the means of darkening the soul The greater the soul thus biased, the deeper its moral darkness even as the ruin of a train of the trains will be in proportion to the power of its engine Hence the strange union of genius and moral perversity in such men as Voltaire and Byron "If the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!"

The truth taught in the text is that perfect integrity towards God shall be rewarded with spiritual light "Ask and ye shall receive" Yes, but says James "Ye ask and receive not because ye ask amiss, Too are, he might have said ye are not honest" The same truth is taught in the parable of the sower where good and honest hearts are said to be the good fruit producing ground

This honesty means more than sincerity as commonly understood A man is said to be sincere when his conscience does not condemn him But conscience alone does not form a transparent medium for the passage of spiritual light It is colored by the judgment and the affections Hence one can as sincerely believe error as another one truth The honesty which has the promise of spiritual illumination means a state of soul where judgment, affections conscience are all sincere,—free from bias—desirous only to know and to accept the truth This singleness of soul means more than paying our debts and keeping our promises towards our fellow men It means a state of heart willing to do to men as we would have them do to us "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself" There must be honesty towards God who has the first and greatest claim upon us The evidence of this honesty does not consist in an approving conscience, but in being filled with and controlled by the light of Divine truth Who is thus honest? "There is none righteous, no, not one" Hence our need of Savior, able to regenerate, to end the war between judgment, conscience and the affections, and thus to restore the lost harmony of the soul But a sincere desire to be honest will be rewarded with light "Blessed are they that do hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled" This is exemplified in the case of Cornelius Are any in darkness? Pray for this grace of honesty cultivate it and Christ will give you light, and may you who have received it, "let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in Heaven"

In the evening Rev. Mr Wirth delivered a sermon on the subject of "Is there a difference between believers and unbelievers?" His text from the words "Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not" Malachi, iii, 18

There is a class of people who say professors of religion are no better than we are, religion is a sham, and if there is a future it will be as well with us as with them It is true there are false professors very many are inconsistent, all are weak and liable to err How great a responsibility rests upon Christians to live in accordance with their profession! But the argument of the class referred to is illogical A counterfeit gold piece proves the existence of real gold It proves that gold is an article of value, for worthless things are not counterfeited The value of gold is determined by the pure metal, not by alloys Will anyone say gold is no better than brass, because there are counterfeit gold pieces? Comparisons must be made fair. Look at Christian nations in comparison with heathen nations Take the moral standard of a Christian community and compare it with the moral standard of Indians Chinese etc Look at the condition of woman under Christianity, and compare it with her sad state of degradation elsewhere While pulling motes out of the eyes of others, look also at the beam in thine own eye, and a difference will appear between believers and unbelievers What after all, is with many the chief reason for not making a profession of religion? Is it not just because the church sets up a higher standard of morals than they are willing to live up to? A time will come when all must appear before the judgment seat of Christ, Then a difference will appear between believers and unbelievers May we all in that day be found among His jewels

UNITARIAN CHURCH

The subject of the morning discourse in this church was suggested by words at the close of the gospel of John "What is that to thee? Follow thou me" Jesus evidently designed to bring himself and his word into personal relation to individuals He did not work through masses down to single men, but through the individual, and along the line of personal salvation and inspiration, up to the conquest of the world He worked first in man and then for mankind Hence an intense individuality and personality prove the Gospel, and all true preaching of Christianity This is not narrowness but concentration We do not build a house by making pictures of it, but by gathering together the materials and workmen,—through the parts to the whole is the order of nature and grace The sunlight does not say, "I will only shine upon forests a mile square" It searches the leaf wins it to take on a body, and at last the whole earth is clothed with glory, Christ attached his word of power for all ages to the humble events of men's daily lives He traced the line of light to an eternal principle from each particular incident And now these principles are of the nature of an ever present power, capable of entering into close personal relation to all human wants and circumstances It is like the power in a mill, moving over men's heads and ready any moment to be adjusted, by a belt, to any work

Such being the personal message of the Gospel, we should enter into immediate connection with it, as a power to be used, and which will use us As we go to the postoffice, not for any one's letter but our own, we should go to the source of spiritual life for our own message, and take it home

But how is it with us? We do as Peter did In the face of solemn admonitions to personal duty, we say, "What shall this man do?" We go to parceling out the heavenly furniture—setting the boundaries of divine things Here is God, there is Christ, the Word is this, the Church is that, yonder is orthodoxy, and that is heresy, here is the right road, and there is the wrong. But how much does all this stand for as market value in the kingdom of Heaven, and in the eyes of a present Savior—in the face of life, eternity, temptation, duty and sin? The shaft may be white or black, and fed by steam or water, but what concerns us is, that it is power, and all that it is worth for us is to throw a belt over it and attach Nor shall we believe in that power until we have tried it Some one when asked if she had experienced religion, answered, "I have, just so far as I have practiced it

A great step is taken in life when we recognize that this Gospel has personal messages and a special commission warning promise, and inspiration for our individual life Let not the power right over your heads waste, waste, waste! Attach yourself to it Let it do its terribly earnest work—the postoffice of Heaven has a letter for you Do you claim it or must the message come to you some day in the handwriting of God

Personal appropriation of the word, truth and life of God as revealed to you in Christ and in the Spirit, is the lesson for us all To all our turnings aside our controversies our irrelevant questions concerning others' duties responsibilities and fate the word of Jesus is, "What is that to thee Follow thou me"

May we realize that the trumpet calls of God and His warnings of retribution are personally addressed and answer them with heart, with hand, with self!

The evening sermon was from the text "And Saul was consenting unto his death" and led up to a consideration of the responsibility of the community in view of the tragedy of two days since after referring to the differing self immolations of the Bible and noticing the differing causes and treatment of them by the writers the attention was called to the duty at once of human sympathy moral discrimination and the recognition of a general responsibility This community, by its carelessness the general haste to get rich, the speculative spirit the habit of plunder one upon another and of cheating and compromising, obscures the line between gain and dishonesty, covers it almost at our worse error even in a guise which were the general standard high could not deceive them We want the profile of right and purity and church lines strongly marked out, or the blood of many brethren will cry out against us from the ground

TAYLOR STREET M E CHURCH

Rev I M Dickerson, a former pastor of the Methodist Church at Salem preached at this church last evening to a large congregation The text was from Colossians, the 3d chapter, 3d verse "For ye are dead and your life is hid with Christ in God" The tenor of the discourse is indicated in the text The speaker said it is a glorious thing to be possessed of this spiritual life it implied to be born again, to be inspired with a new life which was to grow and increase with an eternal existence The life spoken of in the text embodied the idea of a newer and better and more lasting existence than mere animal life This spiritual life once implanted in the human heart if cherished will be like the germ of the oak in contained in the tiny acorn As the one warmed by the sun nourished by the gentle showers and rocked by the tempest grows into giant strength and form as the tree so the other, under the influence of God's grace would become strong and prove a shelter in the storms of life A life out of Christ is a dead life it is devoid of the true vital principle The life in Christ is called a hidden life because of the spiritual motives which actuate the Christian they are not discerned by the worldly minded When a follower of Christ renounces the world, honor and emoluments, his action is called "a sacrifice" by the man of the world for they cannot perceive his motive This mystery is no argument against the reality of this spiritual life any more than the mysteries of natural life were proof of its non existence The philosophers and scientists of the world were all searching for an answer to the question Who is life

The life alluded to by the apostle was one of faith and prayer and we cannot expect to grow up into all its fullness unless we have these aids but with them we may grow in the knowledge of the truth in virtue and grace and become heirs of a crown and an immortal life

The speaker closed with an exhortation to his congregation to seek this higher life of the soul

The third quarterly meeting of this church for the current conference year will be held next Saturday and Sunday

TRINITY CHURCH

At this church the Rev Dr Nevius officiated at the morning service In the evening Rev Mr Sellwood delivered a sermon from the passage of scripture found in the 17th chapter of St John 14th and 15th verses "I have given them thy word and the world hath hated them because they are not of the world even as I am not of the world I pray not that thou shouldst take them out of the world, but that thou shouldst keep them from the evil"

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev Dr A L Lindsley officiated yesterday at this church In the evening he delivered a lecture taken from the passage of Holy Writ found in the 9th chapter of Genesis 5th verse

"And surely your blood of your lives will I require at the hand of every beast will I require it and at the hand of man at the hand of every man's brother will I require the life of man

There is no earthly possession around which God has thrown so many guards as life There is nothing so dear to us as life We may place an estimate upon it but we are incapable of placing a just one, all our possessions depend upon it He who gave life implanted the love of it Life sets the boundary at once to all the gifts of God and the acquisitions of man God has hedged it up as a castle He has given us quick perceptions—and instinct to shun danger—and escape when that life is imperilled He pronounces it the greatest crime to destroy it The text gives us the word of God in that distant age He pronounced his own anathema against him who destroys his own or his fellow's life He guards the life of his creature by a sword, the sword of vengeance Let us note the benevolent character of this law God knew that the pathway of crime would shorten men's days or destroy them In all Christian lands in every age human life has been esteemed a sacred trust The value set upon human life is the best test of civilization If man's forces are retarded by illness there is so much of a loss of achievement,—and when a life is destroyed the aggregate of achievement is lessened Strange views have been entertained on this subject by many philosophers They have said that when the miseries of life over balance the pleasures of it man is justified in ending his existence But this is the grossest error The subject is not left to any man's discretion Shakspeare, the prince of dramatists, errs when he puts into Hamlet's mouth the soliloquy "To be or not to be, that is the question" There is no question about it It is not open to discussion Man's life is taken out of the arena of debate by Him who gave it When the dramatist says, "It is better to bear these ills we have than fly to others we know not of," there is a whole revelation of truth in his words The contemplation of that unknown should arrest every man's dagger as it is thrust toward his own heart

Self destruction is alarmingly increasing in our day Statistics show this increase even in Christian nations We find it in Germany the land of philosophy and intellectual speculation In France, the land of brilliant wits and versatile minds We find its increase even among the sturdy Saxon race Some have thought to explain this upon the principle that it is in epidemic, but this cannot be so If it were the case some of the European nations have the disease in a chronic state It is so in Italy and in France

Let us consider the causes of suicide First among these is loss in business and failures in the pursuits of life Especially where these are the result of their own misconduct, and despondency and despair settle upon them Unbelief with its deadening twilight and Egyptian darkness, shuts out the light of life, as it leads its victim into a partial or temporary insanity And beside these there are morbid views of our relations in life And then does not the greed of gain lead many to this the haste to be rich has destroyed honesty and honorable dealing among men Men are not satisfied to depend upon honorable industry in life, but they flee to other means to get their fortunes What is it but gambling? It is an easy transition after man has learned to bet upon the products of the soil or the price of bank or railroad stock—to go on and bet upon the money of his fellow man. Hence men fall into a snare for all cannot be rich—all cannot win It is a scheme of gaining wealth without giving an equivalent It is contrary to all the laws of political economy Men get the chains of these things upon them before they know it They awake and find the shackles bound upon them "The descent of Avernus is easy but to return, that is the work, that is the labor"

Who is to blame for all this? We would denounce no man nor set of men, but society and all of us,—we are all to blame And as we think upon this, let us turn to the means we may avail ourselves of to prevent this evil 1st —Public sentiment must be elevated Our safety and happiness depend upon our doing this We must do it, too, according to law Most men are well disposed toward reform All men, even the vilest, love virtue There is no man who would not help his fellow man

The true way is to find the root of the evil and then calmly to attack it Our literature needs to be elevated We often find suicide commended as a virtue The hero of a work of fiction—who has been disappointed in love—must put an end to his life and they who read never stop to think, but call it the most natural thing he could do, instead of characterizing it as a piece of egregious folly. And when the hero of a hundred robberies is foiled and cheats the hangman of his victim, they call that most natural to If we would read fiction, let us try to elevate it

The public press may have far more influence than fiction In the hurry of our daily life we trust to our editors to provide us our news, and the wires daily click the tidings of tragedies and disasters The press of Portland, we may be proud to say, has ever been slow to pander to this taste Let us not imbibe from this source the love of those things which gratify because they are sensational, and come to love those bits of gossip and vice and fashionable wit which emanate from foreign centers, and chief of all from that most witty and profligate and brilliant of the capitals of Europe

Very much may be done by the agency of the law against the evils which lead to self destruction We have laws in Oregon which public sentiment will not enforce We must be led to see the evils in them We must see the evil of the license system Public sentiment must rectify it, and social influence must be brought to bear First of all, don't cast out a man who is going down The question to each of you is Have you been the good Samaritan who is enchained in his sin, and has been prostrated by the roadside? The moral and social influence we may exert may be far more influential than law It is better even than public sentiment It goes to the marts of business, with you it will go with you upon the street, it attends you in your homes Does not every patriot and citizen desire that the breathing places of sin and ruin be uprooted and do we not hope that as morality and sobriety, our city of Portland, which we fondly hope shall be the metropolis of this coast shall be excelled by no city in the land? Men will abandon evil to the end evil ways as soon as they feel the pressure of public sentiment against them This appeal shall come to you especially in behalf of our young men No one can think of their future without a prayer for their welfare and a longing hope that they will be checked in the way to ruin and saved from the influence of these glittering temptations The law of love is the most powerful of all—the one that should most pervade our minds and find its bright expression in our lives

In consequence of the absence of the pastor, Rev J D Eaton, no services was held in the First Congregational Church yesterday, either morning or evening.

Rev Geo Burton officiated yesterday in the Chapel of the Bishop Scott Grammar School

Rev John Rosenberg did not hold the customary services at St Stephen's Chapel, in consequence of being absent at Salem.

COOS BAY ITEMS

Our regular correspondent writing from Empire City under date of April 22d sends the following scraps of news

Mr G Radford from Wales has collected a selection of plants found in this county which he proposes taking home to Wales to show what this section produces

The steamer Newport brought on her last trip 27 passengers, among whom were T B Merry formerly of your city

The citizens of this county haven't got over the excitement attending the appointment of a man from another county to an official position in this district and are not likely to The name has appeared in print so often that it is unnecessary to repeat it here

We feel like a new people since the steamer Newport has commenced running between the bay and San Francisco It gives affairs a metropolitan air

Eleven hundred tons of coal and one hundred thousand feet of lumber was shipped from the bay for the week ending to day

Schooners Lanphing Good Templar and brig Sheet have arrived, and steamer Newport and schooners Big River and have sailed since the 15th

The murder of General Canby and Mr Thomas by the Modocs caused great excitement here

Will Saunders late of your city was here last week and sailed for Frisco on the steamer

Your paper has a large and increasing circulation here

Mr Frank Pixley has heard of the approach to California of 18,000 Chinese, and his nerves are shaken He believes that it is "an alarming condition of affairs and should challenge the attention of the community" Says Mr Frank, in phrase sad and soft "If we had a Chamber of Commerce worth the nitro glycerine necessary to blast an idea on of its stupid head, this Chinese question would be at least considered"

W Friedlander, opposite the Post office still continues with his New York prices for Watch work He charges for cleaning a watch ONLY two dollars, for a mainspring, $1 50, for watch-glass, 25 cents

The public mind has been somewhat agitated with the Modoc war an occasional murder or railway disaster and the dull times, and the prospect of buying clothing at a figure not large enough to clean a man to the bedrock The place has been found where you can buy men and boys clothing, or gentlemen's furnishing goods, at the very lowest prices. It is at Beck & Waldman's corner of Front and Washington street where a full assortment of men and boys' clothing, in the latest styles can be selected from

A number of dry goods boxes emptied of their contents led the public to believe that something new had just been opened, and upon closer inspection it was found that the boxes were at the store of J O Neil & Co , 95 First street who had but a few moments before piled up in their store an extensive and well stock of clothing gentlemen's furnishing goods, and cloths of fine texture for the manufacture of spring styles in gentlemen's and boys' clothing

If every man who spends money for advertising would go or send to Geo P Rowell & Co The New York Agents for the most of newspapers published in the United States the number of successful advertisers would be largely increased

CARD —Miss Derry begs to thank the ladies of Portland for their favors during the past season and announces that she has returned to this city to resume the business of Dressmaking, in which, from her thorough experience, she hopes again to meet with a favorable reception Room No 6, Dekum's Building over Clarke, Henderson & Cook's store

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

GRAVE AND GAY

Case of kid napping—Young goat asleep.

Is there any peculiarity in the way a shoe maker breathes his "last?"

The young lady whose feelings "were all worked up" has ordered a fresh supply.

The strongest kind of a hint—A young lady asking a gentleman to see if one of her rings will go on his little finger.

A young man who was crossed in love attempted suicide recently by taking a dose of yeast powder. He immediately rose above his trouble.

"I say, Jack," shouted a driver, the other day, to his pal, "these cursed sheep won't move in the weather, lend us a bark of your dog, will you?"

"How hollow it sounds!" said a patient under the movement cure, as the physician was vigorously pounding his chest. "Oh that's nothing!" said the doctor, wait till we get to the head."

An Irish advertisement—If the gentleman who keeps a shoe store with a red head, will return the umbrella of a young lady with the ivory handle, he will hear something to her advantage.

A gentleman travelling in Ireland said to a very importunate beggar, "You have lost all your teeth." The beggar quietly answered, "An' it's time I parted with um, when I'd nothing for um to do."

An old minister, the other day asked a woman what could be done to induce her husband to attend church. "I don't know," she said, "unless you were to put a pipe and a jug of whisky in the pew."

A contemporary philosophizes thus. Without doubt, had Adam been an Englishman, his condition, with nothing to grumble at, and no "good old times" to look back upon, would have been the extreme of misery.

"Are you going to make a flower bed here Jenkins?" asked a young lady of the gardener. "Yes, mum, them's the borders," answered the gardener. "Why, it'll quite spoil our croquet ground!" "Can't help it, mum, them's your pa's horders, he says as 'ow to hev it laid out for 'orticulture, not for 'usbandry."

A young officer of the British House of Commons wore a tremendous pair of "mustaches" on which one of the members said, "my dear fellow, now the war is over, why don't you put your moustaches on the peace establishment?" "Had you not better put your tongue on the civil list?" was the prompt and happy retort.

Man and Woman in Love.—"Every one must have noticed the great difference, as a general thing, between the conduct of the betrothed man and the young betrothed woman," says a cute observer of engagements among young people. "He, the braver and stronger of the two, is utterly confused and bashful, and seeks to make a secret of the fact. She, on the contrary, tries to parade it, is proud of it, assumes a certain air of proprietorship over him, and offers to her friends little delicate confidence as to how nice it is to be engaged, and how dreadfully jealous he is if she looks at anybody else. The cause of this is just one thing—the man is in love, the girl is not. I have studied human nature, have looked into the depth of hearts, I have made man and woman the study of my life, and I aver that the girl in love is rarer than a black rose. She simply has for her lover the same feeling that the young mother has for her babe. She has an anxious desire to see him for life, to make sure that he is comfortable, that he is in love with her, and rejoices in the knowledge. The idea of losing his love is madness to her, but of herself she does not understand it. A woman who is not selfish and greedy and mean, who dare not smile on those who can give her fine clothes and a grand establishment, overflows with the mother's feeling all her life. She expends it on her dolls in childhood, on her poodle or her kitten, or her canary afterward; and, when the time arrives, on her lover. Many a man would lose a great deal of his conceit and vanity if he knew just how the girl whom he supposed to be in love with him really felt. She also, would be surprised to hear that she was not in love at all, but only delighted to have some one in love with her."

A Shuddering Horror.—The extraordinary man who could not shiver—the fairy story-books have told us of him—may now feel his heart quiver, his shoulders shrink together, and over his whole being a shudder pass. Night before last Wm. Ross, a respected freight conductor on the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad, met death in its most frightful shape, met it, though innocent of any wrong to his follow-men, in the way in which it must often be faced on the gallows, by felons, that is, in the prime of manhood, the vigor of intellect, and with life and hope still fresh in his heart. He saw annihilation sweeping down upon him, and struggled to avoid it, even as a poor wretch who knows the time set by his Maker has not come, frantically writhes in the iron meshes of a fearful law. Having occasion to change switch, Ross went to the rear of his train and signalled the engineer to back down fast! The locomotive driver obeyed, when, horror! the conductor found his foot caught in the "frog" switch. He attempted with the desperation of despair to wrench it out—the irons held him all the faster. Brakemen seized him and tried to drag him free. Their efforts were in vain. The engine was reversed, and the brakes put down hard. In vain. In vain, also, were the victim's cry on God and man for help. Right out of the hands of his comrades the rear car struck him down, and the wheels finished, in one ghastly moment, the sickening tragedy. Yes, two minutes, into which were compressed the agony of years, one second of spouting blood and crashing bones, and Oblivion passed with the train, over another railroad murdered life.

A Cynic's Dictionary.—Water.—A clear fluid once used as a drink.

Honesty.—An excellent joke.

Tongue.—A little horse that is continually running away.

My Dear.—An expression used by man and wife at the commencement of a quarrel.

Bargain.—A ludicrous transaction, in which each party thinks he has cheated the other.

Doctor.—A man who kills you to-day, to save you from dying to-morrow.

Wealth.—The most respectable quality of men.

Esquire.—Everybody, yet nobody, equal to colonel.

Jury.—Twelve prisoners in a box, to try one or more at the bar.

State's Evidence.—A wretch who is pardoned for being baser than his comrades.

Modesty.—A beautiful flower that flourishes in secret places.

Lawyer.—A learned gentleman who rescues your estate from your enemy and keeps it himself.

The Grave.—An ugly hole in the ground which lovers and poets wish they were in, but take uncommon means to keep out of.

Money.—The god of the country.

How They Trade in the Kentucky Mountains.—At Point Creek, Jackson county, a trader had bought sheep of a resident. [illegible]ident had one more to sell, when the following conversation ensued.

Trader—"I'll give you two dollars for that sheep."

Resident—"It's worth five dollars."

T.—"It aint worth two dollars."

R.—"It's worth five dollars."

T.—It aint.

R. (drawing a large navy)—"What's that there sheep worth?"

T.—"Under the circumstances, I think it's worth nigh unto six dollars."

They traded forthwith.—Lebanon (Ky.) Standard.

But let me tell you this. If the time comes when you must lay down the fiddle and the bow, because your fingers are too stiff, and drop the foot-sculls because your arms are too weak, and after dazzling a while with eye-glasses, come at last to the undisguised reality of spectacles, if the time come when that fire of life we have spoke of has burned so low, that where its flames reverberated there is only the somber stains of regret, and where its coals glowed only the white ashes that cover the embers of the memory—don't let your heart grow cold, and you may carry cheerfulness and love with you into the teens of your second century, if you can last so long.—Holmes.

Indian Affairs—Public Meeting at La Grande

Pursuant to a call signed by many of our citizens, a public meeting was held in La Grande on Saturday, April 19th, 1873, to take into consideration the aspect of Indian affairs.

On motion, John Wilkinson was chosen Chairman and M. P. Bull, Secretary.

On motion, a committee of five, consisting of Gen. John H. Stevens, Hon. J. H. Slater, E. S. McComas, Daniel Chaplin and M. P. Bull, were appointed to report resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting. After due deliberation, the committee reported the following which, on motion, were adopted:

Whereas, The recent news from the seat of Indian difficulties known as the Modoc war, have startled the whole State into a realization of the imminent danger which threatens our entire frontier borders, and has cast a deep gloom over every section, by reason of the treacherous massacre of eminent soldiers and citizens. And, Whereas, it is apparent that our Indian difficulties cannot long be confined to the lava beds of Southern Oregon and Northern California, but are likely to extend along our Southern and Eastern border, involving extensive settlements in danger of a warfare with savages who respect no age, sex or condition: therefore, be it

Resolved, That we have heard of the recent massacre at Klamath Lake by the treacherous savages with the deepest sense of grief and alarm, grief that eminent soldiers and respected citizens have, while making an earnest effort to secure peace to our people, met death at the hands of a treacherous and savage foe,—alarm for the safety of the scattered settlers all along our Southern and Eastern frontier.

Resolved, That we heartily sympathize with the friends and the relatives of the victims of the recent massacre at the lava beds, and mourn with them their sad and untimely death, and demand from the Government that the perpetrators be relentlessly pursued and punished for the horrid deed.

Resolved, further, That we cannot too severely condemn a policy, however well meant by the Government, that is fast hurrying our State into an Indian war with many of the Indian tribes in our midst and upon our borders. That while we deprecate and condemn a war of extermination against the Indian as unchristian and inhuman, we earnestly protest against a policy that would surrender the settlers on the frontier to their merciless and treacherous raids and then seek to make peace with the murderers while yet the blood of innocent victims drips from their treacherous hands and the murderers are still clad in the habiliments stolen from the mutilated dead.

Resolved, That experience has long since taught that in no case is it wise or politic to treat or parley with Indians who have committed depredations upon the whites until they have unconditionally surrendered or sued for peace.

Resolved, further, That in the opinion of this meeting, and in the light of recent events, there is imminent danger of Indian troubles with the Wallowa Indians on our east and north, and that no time should be lost to place that section in a state of defense, and it is also the sense of this meeting that at least one company of soldiers should be immediately stationed in the Wallowa valley, and in addition arms should be placed where they may be readily procured in case of need.

Resolved, That we protest against the surrender of the Wallowa Valley, now being rapidly settled, to Joseph's or other bands of Indians, and demand that these recreants be required, and if need be forced, to go and remain upon their proper reservation.

Resolved, further, That Hon. J. H. Slater, Daniel Chaplin and E. S. McComas be a committee appointed to draft a memorial to the Government, presenting the importance of speedily determining the threatened trouble with Joseph's band of Indians, the importance of retaining the Wallowa Valley and all northeastern Oregon to settlement, and also to urge upon the attention of the Government the danger of allowing Indians from the several reservations upon this coast to wander off from them.

E. S. McComas introduced the following resolution, which, on motion, was adopted:

Resolved, That the citizens of Union county hereby request His Excellency, Governor Grover, to forward to the Sheriff of this county at least two hundred stand of arms of the best pattern at his command, and a reasonable supply of ammunition, for the protection of Wallowa Valley.

On motion of M. P. Bull, the Secretary was authorized to furnish the OREGONIAN, Herald and Bulletin a copy each of the proceedings of this meeting for publication.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned.

J. R. WILKINSON, Chairman.

M. P. BULL, Secretary.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

Financial.

SATURDAY EVENING, April 26, 1873.

Gold in New York to-day, 117½.

Portland Legal Tender rates, 86 buying; 87 selling.

Gold bars are quotable at 800 fine.

Wheat in Liverpool—Average California, 11s 6d@11s 7d, club 11s 10d@12s.

During the past ten days, according to dispatches, the money market in New York, has been quite steady. The highest point reached was 19½. Since then, the premium has not ruled above 18, nor below 17. Currency is beginning to flow back to New York in such quantities as to be beyond the control of the financial sharps. It is likely that the Secretary has by this time commenced disbursing the May interest. The amount to be paid is $10,000,000 gold, a good portion of which, however, is on foreign account. The release of this sum, together with $5,000,000 to be sold during the month, are not without their influence on the market.

One of the heavy financial men of New York who was recently interviewed by a commercial reporter, says: "The whole business world is startled when the Bank of England advances its rate of interest half per cent per annum, or from 4 to 4½. And yet the rates for money in this country may advance from 7 per cent to 300 per cent per annum, and nobody moves a hair and nothing is done by the Government. This is very discouraging to business men. These speculators and usurers, who lock up millions of currency, paralyzing and jeopardizing every business interest in the country and the Government itself should be taught that they cannot play that game with safety. The Government has the power to do this, and it should promptly exercise it, in my opinion, in every emergency. We cannot expect stability and prosperity so long as our affairs are managed as they have been since last fall, when the Government at just the wrong moment commenced to call in currency. It did not need the money, the call was most untimely and unwise, and the internal and other revenues of the Government have been millions less in consequence. From that day to the present, the merchants of New York, as a whole, have made no money, and they will not until a different policy is pursued."

The commercial news from Honolulu is not important. The produce exports for the quarter ending March 31st were valued at $343,700, a gain of $62,700 over the corresponding quarter in 1872. There was an increase in the exports of sugar, rice, coffee, fungus and pulu. The exports of sugar were 5,079,000 lbs, a gain of 1,788,000 lbs as against the same quarter last year, rice and paddy, 213,600 lbs, a gain of 98,600 lbs, coffee, 42,000 lbs, a gain of 30,000 lbs, fungus, 23,200 lbs, a gain of 3,200 lbs; pulu, 60,200 lbs, a gain of 37,600 lbs. There was less sugar shipped to San Francisco and more to Oregon, British Columbia and Australia.

The Gold Rise.

The New York Bulletin in its comments on the rise in the price of gold says:

"The rise in the price of money occurred too late in the day to have any important effect on foreign exchange, the indications in the money market up to half past two o'clock having been in favor of lower rates for money. There was to-day a large mercantile demand for exchange, dry goods importers being conspicuous buyers. As to the prospective demand of the next two or three weeks there is still a good deal of borrowed sterling to cover, and soon there will be a demand for remittances for May coupons collected for European account. On the other hand, there are favorable advices from Europe in regard to our securities, the demand for United States bonds being strong, and railroad bonds meeting with more favor. Com. Vanderbilt's personal friends say what is equivalent to 103 in our currency has been bid for the entire $10,000,000 or £2,000,000 sterling 6 per cent gold loan of the N. Y. Central and Hudson. We also hear of other railroad negotiations about being consummated so that the supply of exchange for a month to come may be sufficient to meet the demand without a further important advance in rates. The bankers, however, look for a higher market as soon as money becomes settled. The rates for money up to 1:30 o'clock did not rise above ¼, for two days, and the greater part of the business was at 1-16. In the afternoon a number of brokers were subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury, on Monday at 11 o'clock, which intimidated lenders, who withdrew their funds from use and it became a question of supply rather than rates. As high as ⅛ per cent and interest was bid before the close, but no loans as far as we could ascertain were made at that rate. Naturally, money ought to be easier, as every train brings in [illegible] from the interior, but what with the usury law and the speculative money lenders it is difficult to say exactly when the market will return to its normal condition. The prospect early in the day that the market would be easier, stimulated the inquiry for merchantile paper, which is held at 10@12 per cent for the best names."

Boot and Shoe Trade.

The general condition of this branch of trade in our city during the past week has been far from satisfactory. The advent of better weather has induced a somewhat more active movement from the State and country and local buyers, but distant merchants either [illegible] from visiting the market entirely, or buy very sparingly when here. Most of the transactions are in the nature of orders for small lots of goods to answer immediate requirements. Meanwhile, the spring is fast passing away, and dealers have not laid in their usual supplies. The difficulty experienced in collecting bills, and the stringency of the money market, are not favorable to business. We are now inclined to the opinion that we shall drift into the summer with very little accomplished considering what might have taken place had events not worked so badly during several months past.

Miscellaneous.

The British bark Takatsa, from Hong Kong, reached San Francisco on the 20th inst with 1,000,000 lbs rice. She was 72 days making the trip.

The San Francisco Bulletin of the 22d says: "The latest advices from New York note a better feeling in the Wool market. The auction sales on Wednesday and Thursday were well attended and prices were quite satisfactory to sellers. Several lots of California brought 14@16c. The money pressure is relaxing, and as the goods trade is improving, better prices are expected. The private sales for the week comprise 150,000 lbs of California at 18@27c for burry, lambs and fall, 22@32 for spring, and 7?c for [illegible] fall. The receipts here [illegible], and a fair trade is in progress. A number of buyers have arrived from the East, and are taking a survey of the field, preparatory to entering the market."

Home Produce Market.

The day has witnessed but little movement in this line. A number of wagon loads of produce from the adjacent farms were in town, and in a measure we learn that the owners found it difficult to dispose of their potatoes, butter, eggs, etc., at the quoted rates. This is not surprising, as the articles named have been gradually growing weaker for several days. In oats the disposition of holders is decidedly against selling, but we are not at all sure of the advisability of this course, as the same causes which brought about the present decline are likely to operate for some time.

In other articles of farm produce the last quotations given by us are pretty firmly maintained.

Shipping Intelligence.

The Oregon Steamship Company have made a further reduction in their rates of freight on the Willamette river, making a marked difference in favor of producers.

The steamship Ajax left San Francisco for this port this morning at the usual hour. She will be due Tuesday next.

The schooner Oregonian is loading lumber at Oak Point, the barkentine Trovatore, at St. Helens, and the Webfoot is loading with stove bolts at a point about midway between Oak Point and Astoria.

The barkentine Jane A. Falkinburg, which arrived at Honolulu from this port March 23d, is now about due on her return trip.

To Sufferers:

THE ABOVE ESTABLISHMENT HAS BEEN opened for the treatment of all Chronic and Private Diseases, in males as well as females, where all who are suffering from any of those dreadful ailments can find relief.

Young men having weakened and injured their constitutions by secret habits, need have no fear in calling and consulting me, as all communications are strictly confidential and sure of a permanent cure where treatment is followed.

Special attention given to the treatment of stricture, and to all who are suffering from such, I can warrant a cure.

Diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder, Piles, Dropsy, Cancers, and all other ailments successfully treated.

To Ladies who are dragging out a life of misery, on account of debility, sterility, menstruation, and many other diseases peculiar to the sex, can find relief by calling.

The celebrated FEMALE REGULATOR PILLS sent free by mail to any address on receipt of $5 00 per box. Certain and safe in all cases.

Office consultation free of charge. All communications strictly confidential. Office hours, 11 A. M. to 4 P. M., and 7 to 9 P. M. DR. O. G. GLASS.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of those horrible, life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the faces, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his offices of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco, Post Office Box 1,957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

☞ Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian. ly6dapt
